Dear Parents

World Book Day Celebration – Wednesday 7th March 2018

As part of our World Book Day celebrations, the staff and students of NTC will be having a non-school uniform day on Wednesday 7 March. We are encouraging everyone to come in fancy dress. There will be prizes for the best costumes. There is no specific theme this year. We will be asking all students to donate £1 to charity instead which will be donated to Book Aid International. The charity works in partnership with libraries in Africa providing books, resources and training to support an environment in which reading for pleasure and lifelong learning can flourish.

As part of the day, we will be visited by Nickel Books, who will be setting up a shop on site where students can purchase discounted books. Students will receive a £1 World Book Day token on the day. You may wish to provide your son with a small amount of additional money, in order to enable him to buy a book of his choosing.

Students are reminded that although it is a non-school uniform day, lessons will continue as normal and they will need to remember to bring in their swipe cards and journals.

Thank you in advance for your support – we look forward to seeing your son's creation on the day!

Yours sincerely,

Ms S Johnson
Assistant Headteacher/Director of Literacy.
